AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff does not have authority to do business in the State of New York as set forth in the annexed certification of the Department of State. Pursuant to Business Corporation Law § 1312, which applies in federal court as well as state court, a “foreign corporation doing business in this state without authority shall not maintain any action or special proceeding in this state unless and until such corporation has been authorized to do business in this state and it has paid to the state all fees and taxes imposed under the tax law or any related statute, as defined in section eighteen hundred of such law, as well as penalties and interest charges related thereto, accrued against the corporation.”

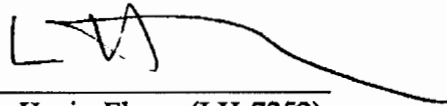

Plaintiff’s lack of capacity due to its failure to file an application for authority for all of the years that it has been doing business in New York is a jurisdictional bar to the maintenance of this action. See, e.g., Town of Claverack v. Brew, 277 A.D.2d 807, 716 N.Y.S.2d 748 (3rd Dept. 2000) (plaintiff’s lack of capacity to maintain action warrants dismissal of the complaint). “If a foreign corporation falls within BCL §1312(a) and therefore must be authorized to do business in New York (because it is, in fact, so doing), before it may maintain an action in the State, it may not maintain an action in Federal court based on diversity jurisdiction.” Storwal International, Inc. v. Thom Rock Realty Company, L.P., 783 F. Supp. 1141, 1144 (S.D.N.Y. 1992)(citing Netherlands Ship Mortgage Corp. v. Madias, 717 F.2d 731, 735 (2nd Cir. 1983)).

“The preclusive effect of N.Y. Bus. Corp. L. §1312 also applies to federal courts within the State of New York. Posadas de Mexico, S.A. de C.V. v. Dukes, 757 F. Supp. 297, 300 n.2 (S.D.N.Y. 1991)(citing Williams Erectors of Suffolk County v. Mulach Steel Corp., 684 F. Supp. 357 (E.D.N.Y. 1988))(Noncompliance with New York’s “door closing statute” precludes unauthorized foreign corporation from maintaining diversity suit in the federal courts of New York.))

“An appropriate remedy for a § 1312(a) violation is a conditional dismissal or stay of the action pending cure of the violation.” A.I. International Corporate Holdings, Inc. v. Surgicare, Inc., 2003 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 20561 *4 (S.D.N.Y. 2003)(citing S&K Sales Co. v. Nike, Inc., 816 F.2d 843, 853 (2nd Cir. 1987)
